

8 WORD MATCHING

TEACHER ANSWERS

This list of 12 vocabulary words featuring people, places, and things your students may have encountered or heard about while enjoying their walk in the park. Have students draw a line between the definition and the correct word.

The oldest city park in Indianapolis. The land was purchased by the city in 1873 and would be called Southern Park for 8 years before being renamed for US President, James Garfield.

The sculptor who crafted the famous bronze statue of General Henry Ware Lawton that now stands tall in Garfield Park.

A unique, tower-like building with many tiers built in traditions originating in Asia. The Pagoda Shelter built in Garfield Park in 1903 helped to usher in an exciting period of social and entertainment events.

A Streetcar system with a city-wide route that ran along Shelby Street bringing visitors to Garfield Park in the early 1900's, when very few families owned automobiles. You can see the Trolley Waiting Station still located in the Park today.

A statue or other structure made to keep alive the memory of a person or event. There are several monuments located in Garfield Park to memorialize a range of historical events and Difference-makers.

Andrew O'Conner

Trolley

Garfield Park

Monument

Pagoda

A time period (1880-1909) when cities like Indianapolis began making policy decisions and city planning around the concept of developing parks and transportation systems. Families volunteer to participate in conservation projects in Garfield Park like tree planting and clean ups.

Something that is handed down or remains from a previous generation or time..

A style of building construction and decorating that is characterized by rich colors, bold geometry, and decadent detail work, very popular in the US in the 1920's, 30's and 40's.

A round or oval building, typically un-roofed, with a central place for the presentation of dramatic, musical, or sporting events, including a sloping, semicircular seating gallery.

The art or practice of garden cultivation and management. Many people volunteer year-round at the Garfield Park Conservatory to help maintain and manage the amazing rainforest plantings, the sunken garden, and the Children's Garden. Come and dig in the dirt with us!

The civilian population and activities of a nation whose armed forces are engaged in war abroad.

A room with a glass roof and walls and used as a greenhouse. The Conservatory at Garfield Park has had many makeovers and uses over the years since its original construction in 1908 and now stands as a permanent rainforest theme.

Legacy

Art - deco

Conservation Movement

Horticulture

Conservatory

Amphitheater

Home Front